

Health Sciences Centre FOUNDATION

Margaret Proven

Executive Vice President, Human Resources

Pollard Banknote

In her current role as Executive Vice President, Human Resources at Pollard Banknote, Margaret is responsible for leading the development, strategy, and implementation of integrated Human Resources programs that are consistent with the company's mission and values. She takes pride in building and coaching teams with a focus on driving performance and is actively involved in developing strategies and programs to achieve business growth and objectives of the company.

Prior to joining Pollard Banknote, Margaret held prominent positions at Shaw Communications and CanWest Global Communications. She has Bachelor of Science (Statistics) and Master of Science (Actuarial Mathematics & Management) degrees from the University of Manitoba.

Margaret is an active board member for Human Kind International, a non-profit organization that seeks to provide free, quality early childhood education to refugee and marginalized children in Dadaab, Africa.

Margaret is fiercely proud of her home province and enjoys spending her free time cooking, running, working out and enjoying lake life with her husband John and their sons Andrew and Mark.