

Tara Kroeker

Tara Kroeker is the Controller and an owner at Allco Electrical, where she has played a pivotal role in the company's operations and strategic direction since 2010. With over 30 years of experience in the construction industry, Tara brings a deep understanding of business operations and financial management, supported by her educational background, which includes a Business Administration diploma from Red River College and a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration from the University of Winnipeg.

In her role at Allco Electrical, Tara has been instrumental in guiding the company through several transitions, emphasizing the importance of strong interpersonal relationships in the workplace. Her leadership extends beyond financial oversight; she is also actively involved in the company's safety department, conducting on-site visits and working closely with the safety committee to ensure a secure work environment. Tara is a certified COR auditor and is committed to ongoing professional development, continually adding new qualifications and skills to her repertoire.

Beyond her responsibilities at Allco Electrical, Tara is a dedicated community leader with a strong entrepreneurial spirit. She frequently assumes mentorship and leadership roles, particularly in supporting women in business. Her commitment to community service is reflected in her involvement with various organizations, including the Children's Hospital and HSC Foundation. Tara also serves on the Kroeker Farms family council, contributing to the strategic direction and governance of the organization.

Tara is married to Matt Kroeker, a local industrial designer, and they have two adult children pursuing post-secondary education.